

ICSTI Public Conference 2006

PARTNERING IN SCIENCE INFORMATION: NECESSITIES OF CHANGE

Lister Hill Center Auditorium, National Library of Medicine
Bethesda, Maryland
June 7-8, 2006

DAY 1: The New Players and Relationships

Trends in Information Market Dynamics
Leigh Watson Healy, Chief Analyst
Outsell

DAY 2: New Products, Impacts, and Challenges

E-Science Implications for the Scientific Information Lifecycle
Executive Panel Moderated by
Clifford A. Lynch, Executive Director
Coalition for Networked Information

SESSION THEMES:

- New Players In the Information Life Cycle
- Innovative Relationships: Who's partnering with whom?
- Globalization – Internationalization
- Moving up the Value Chain: Information for Decision Making
- “Repositories” in the New STI Infrastructure
- National Centers: New Roles, Relationships, and Opportunities for Partnership

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Managers and knowledge workers in scientific and technical information including scientists, publishers, librarians, information managers, digital content providers, information architects, and infrastructure developers.

This two-day conference will focus on changes in roles and relationships in the information life cycle. It will discuss the new players and partnerships that are becoming the necessities for success in our digital world.

ICSTI Public Conference 2006

REGISTRATION

| | | |
|--------------------------|------------------|---------------------|
| REGISTRATION FEE: | By May 26 | After May 26 |
| | $250 | $300 |

Fee includes breaks, lunches and all materials.

Register online: <https://eventmanagement.infointl.com/icsti2006/>

Linked also from:
<http://www.icsti.org/>.

Please distribute freely to others you think may have an interest.