

LGBTQ Pride Month at the Library of Congress

loc.gov/lgbt

Calendar of Events

All events are free, no tickets required

Wednesday, June 1, 2016 - 2:00pm

Pastor Mitchell L. Jones on "The Journey to Authenticity" [Author Talk]

LM-139, Ground Floor, Madison Building

Pastor Mitchell L. Jones discusses his book "The Journey to Authenticity: 8 Secrets to Getting the Life You Desire." As an outspoken gay pastor, Jones is a strong advocate for LGBTQ members of the African-American community and Christian faiths. He has appeared on OWN's Iyanla: Fix My Life.

Presented by LC-GLOBE and the Daniel A.P. Murray African American Cultural Association.

Friday, June 3, 2016 - 10:30am

Collecting LGBTQ+ Resources at the Library of Congress [Panel]

Dining Room A, Sixth Floor, Madison Building

Staff from across the Library of Congress, including Meg Metcalf (Humanities & Social Sciences Division), Ryan Reft (Manuscript Division), Bob Dardano (Collections Development Office), and Nicholas A. Brown (Music Division), discuss the state of collecting LGBTQ+ resources at the institution. From the origins of LGBTQ+ collections at the Library to future collections development goals, this discussion will give insights into the important role of the LGBTQ+ community in American cultural memory.

Presented by the Humanities and Social Sciences Division, in association with LC-GLOBE.

Saturday, June 11, 2016 - 4:00pm

Capital Pride Parade

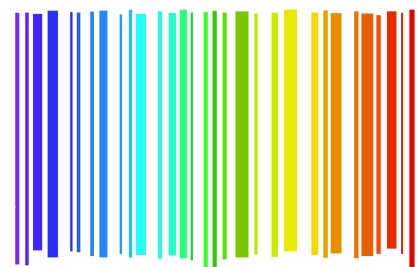

Lineup Location: 22nd & P Streets NW

LC-GLOBE, the GLASS Caucus and LGBT Congressional Staff Association join forces to represent the legislative branch in the Capital Pride Parade.

For more information:

Contact: Nicholas Brown, (202) 707-8437, nbrown@loc.gov

Individuals requiring accommodations for this event are requested to submit a request at least five business days in advance by contacting (202) 707-6362 or ADA@loc.gov.

LC-GLOBE
Library of Congress LGBT Employees

Wednesday, June 15, 2016 - 2:00pm

The Rejected [Film]

Mary Pickford Theater, Third Floor, Madison Building

Produced by KQED in San Francisco, The Rejected was the first TV documentary about homosexuality broadcast in the United States. The film is in the Library of Congress' collections, and it features interviews with Margaret Mead, Dr. Karl Bowman, Harold Call, Donald Lucas, Les Fisher, as well as various officials and community leaders from San Francisco. This screening launches a collaborative research project into the film and LGBTQ collections at the Library.

Presented by the Motion Picture, Broadcasting and Recorded Sound Division, and EEO/DP, in association with LC-GLOBE.

Thursday, June 16, 2016 - 3:00pm

LGBT Rare Book Open House & Reception

LJ-205, Rosenwald Room, Second Floor, Jefferson Building

The Rare Book and Special Collections Division presents an open house, featuring recently acquired LGBT collections and materials, including the John Ashbery Collection, the James Ingram Merrill Collection, and the Stathis Orphanos Collection. Light refreshments will be served.

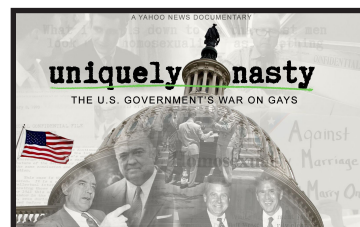

Presented by the Rare Book and Special Collections Division, in association with LC-GLOBE.

Tuesday, June 28, 2016 - 12:00pm

Uniquely Nasty [Film]

Mary Pickford Theater, Third Floor, Madison Building

The Guild hosts a film screening of the documentary Uniquely Nasty, which examines the discrimination of LGBTQ members of the federal workforce in the twentieth century. Much of the film is based on extensive research in the Library of Congress Frank Kameny Papers and Lilli Vincenz Papers. This screening jointly celebrates Pride Month and "The Way We Work at the Library of Congress: Past, Present, & Future," a month-long initiative that seeks to explore the work culture of our institution.

Presented by the Library of Congress Professional Guild AFSCME Local 2910, in association with LC-GLOBE.

Wednesday, June 29, 2016 - 1:00pm

Pride Month Keynote: Jim Obergefell on "Love Wins" [Author Talk]

Mumford Room, Sixth Floor, Madison Building

Jim Obergefell, the plaintiff in the landmark marriage equality case Obergefell v. Hodges, discusses his new book with co-author and Pulitzer-winner Debbie Cenziper. Obergefell was named to the Out Magazine Out100 List for 2015, and has been recognized with awards from SAGE, Equality Florida, the National Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, and Equality North Carolina. Opening remarks by Roberta I. Shaffer, Law Librarian of Congress. Book-signing to follow.

Presented by EEO/DP and the Law Library of Congress, in association with LC-GLOBE and the ALA's GLBT Book Month.

Wednesday, July 6, 2016, 11:00am

Golden Crown Literary Society Author Spotlight [Author Talk]

LM-139, First Floor, Madison Building

Authors Anne McMan (Backcast), Jewelle Gomez (The Gilda Stories), Marie Castle (The Devil You Know), and CD Cain (When it Raynes) deliver readings and lead a discussion about their work. These distinguished writers represent the Golden Crown Literary Society (GCLS), a non-profit organization that promotes education and recognition of lesbian literature. Book signing to follow.

Presented by LC-GLOBE, in association with the Golden Crown Literary Society and GCLS Annual Conference.

Request ADA accessibility accommodations at least five business days in advance by contacting (202) 707-6362 or ADA@loc.gov.