The discounted FEDLINK price is $585.00 per registrant for the full conference, the same as the SLA member early bird rate. There are no FEDLINK discounts for pre-conference sessions.

Payment Methods

FEDLINK members can register and use one of these payment options: your agency's FEDLINK Training (FT) account, your agency's government credit card, or your personal credit card.

Registration

Each registrant, regardless of payment method, must complete the attached registration form. Indicate the payment method on the form and include the FEDLINK ID for an FT account or specific information to charge your credit card. Your agency must have a completed FY2018 interagency agreement (IAA) prior to registration in order to select FT account.

Please note the following restrictions: The FEDLINK registration form allows you to register only for the full conference. Pre-conference sessions are not eligible for discounts and cannot be paid via your FT account. To register for pre-conference sessions, you must register online: <https://www.sla.org/attend/sla-2018-annual-conference-2/registration/>. Travel and per diem costs cannot be paid via your FT account.
