

13 NOV 2019
9:00am to 4:30pm

Montpeller Room
James Madison Building
Library of Congress

Preliminary Agenda

Welcome and Keynote Presentation (9:00am-9:50am)

Laurie Hall, Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office
(Webcast)

Joint Advisory Board/Membership Meeting (9:50am – 10:30am) (Webcast)

Digital Collaboration Tools (10:45 – 11:45)

Discover OMB's Max.gov, a government-wide suite of advanced collaboration, information sharing, data collection, publishing, and business intelligence for cross-government collaboration and knowledge management. (Webcast)

Vendor Showcase (11:45am – 12:15pm) (Webcast)

Afternoon Plenary Session (1:30pm – 2:30pm)

Networking within the Information Professions
Join representatives from the American Association of Law Libraries, American Library Association, FEDLINK, and the Government Information and Military Libraries Divisions of the Special Libraries Association to explore the value of formal and informal networks. (Webcast)

Concurrent Afternoon Breakout Sessions

The Business of Electronic Resources (2:45 - 3:45)
The FEDLINK Electronic Resources Working Group hosts a discussion on driving collaboration, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness in the management of eResources across federal libraries and information centers. The focus of this meeting is to create a plan of action to identify priorities and organize to meet the objectives of its charter. (Webcast)

For the Digital Federal Record (2:45pm - 3:45pm)
Representatives from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) cover the basics and beyond of digitization of federal records and the transition to electronic recordkeeping.

The Value of Results: Designing Research and Metrics for Federal Libraries (3:45pm – 4:30pm)
The FEDLINK Research and Metrics Working Group will review current and propose future approaches to data gathering and analysis for federal libraries large and small. (Webcast)

Ask FEDLINK (3:45pm - 4:30pm)
Have specific questions about interagency agreements, accounts, orders, or more? FEDLINK accounting and contracts staff members and network librarians answer your account questions.

To register to attend the Expo onsite or via webcast, go to

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FEDLINKFallExpo19>