Copyright Clearance

Center/ RightFind® Suite

Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) clears the path to integrated data and information, accelerates knowledge and advances copyright. CCC builds solutions that combine licensing, content, software and professional services to advance the way people integrate, access and share information. Our award-winning RightFind® Suite helps organizations like yours turn information into knowledge, make more informed data-driven decisions, and support collaboration across teams of all sizes.

A World of Content at Your Fingertips

Join CCC for an overview of RightFind products available to FEDLINK members and a live demonstration of Document Delivery with RightFind®. RightFind Document Delivery provides fast, easy access to the full range of high-value, copyrighted information you need—anytime and anywhere.

We'll take you inside RightFind and show how to:

- Search from CCC's proprietary database of more than 120 million scientific citations.
- Access documents quickly by leveraging CCC's direct relationships with thousands of publishers enabling fast turnaround time, with immediate access to most items.
- Secure the rights you need to simplify copyright-compliant collaboration.
